Excerpt: . . . will grant an injunction to stay the common law proceedings before or after judgment, on a proper case made. Judgment reversed. Blandford and Garrard, by R. F. Lyon, for plaintiffs in error. Peabody and Brannon, for defendants. MARCH 28, 1876. Thomson vs. Ocmulgee B. and L. Association. Mortgage, from Bibb. WARNER, O. J. This case came before the court below on exceptions to the report of an auditor, which were referred to the decision of the court, both as to the law and the facts under the evidence submitted, without the intervention of a jury. The auditor in his report found that Thompson was indebted to the association the sum of 1, 634 65. with interest thereon from the 6th of December, 1873. The court, after considering the report, made by the auditor, as well as the evidence on which the same was founded, confirmed the report. Whereupon Thompson excepted. The errors insisted on here are that the court held that the association had not finally suspended and quit business, under the agreement of the 6th of December, 1873, as set forth in the record as contemplated by the former decision of this court between the same parties, in the 52nd Geo. Rep. , 427, and in allowing interest on the amount from the date of that agreement. By the agreement of the members of the association, its operations were merely suspended until its mortgage securities, which were in...
