

The Sophia Diary (Paperback)

By James Lake

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Any number of ancient Christian documents have been discovered over the past century, documents that bear witness to a religion that barely even resembles Christianity as we know it today. What if one of them mysteriously, and illegally, fell into your hands? That s the dilemma facing Dr. Justin Thomas, an internationally acclaimed researcher who s drawn into the intrigue surrounding a recently unearthed 4th century diary, the deeply moving testament of an idealistic young bishop who s being hunted as a heretic, simply because she s a woman, and a member of the Gnostic faith. Heart-rending, enlightening, and more than anything else uplifting, The Sophia Diary is a multi-layered story-within-a-story that offers a rare glimpse into the time when Rome officially sanctioned the Orthodox Catholic Church--and set out to destroy all the others. It could very well be described as a mystery, although it could just as well be described as a study in faith and redemption. For the true source of its power isn t so much the compelling story it tells, but the voice of the woman...
