I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

The cities, centers of commerce, manufactures and trade, which sit upon the shores like gems set in a cirlet, are rapidly increasing in size and number. All these great measures of development are following the planting of seed by the first settlers, little more than sixty years ago, and in the trend of events, forming a mighty commercial province. Witnessed daily by the people are scenes of natural objects of wonderful beauty. Mountains arc upon all sides, and primeval forests, sea and shore, land-locked lakes, rivers running from snowy mountain tops, combinations of vapor, cloud and sunset, more gorgeous and beautiful than artist hand can paint; all of these may the people of Western Washington daily behold.
