

A Dubious Crime A Colton Banyon Mystery #9 Volume 9

By Gerald J. Kubicki

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 406 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. The morning starts out like a routine day for Colton Banyon. Except, the insanely jealous, Loni wants to come to the office and scope out the women that Banyon works with at Dewey and Beatem in Chicago. The entire Patel clan has gone to India to visit with relatives. Previne stays behind, at Banyons request to inspect an archeological dig site in Las Vegas, . Then the unthinkable happens. There is an explosion at the dig site and Previne is left clinging to life. Her doctors say that she will never recover and they will turn off her life support equipment in three days. Banyon soon discovers that the explosion is no accident and is part of a heinous plot by someone who is just drumming up business. The bomb was purposely planted to sensationalize the atrocities committed by the Japanese, during World War II at a secret facility called Unit 731. When Banyon attempts to notify the Patel clan of Prevines peril, he finds that they are on a remote mountainside in the Himalayas and in serious jeopardy themselves....
