THE RESEARCH ON FINANCIAL NETWORK SIMULATION BASED ON AGENT

The research on financial network simulation based on agent

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Abstract: In the process of the research of monitoring abnormal capital flows, it is very difficult to acquire the real financial transaction data on account of many factors such as bank secrecy. Even though these real data are adopted, due to various data formats, data fracture, and other factors among the different banks, there still exist many problems when the data are adopted directly for the research. It is obviously impossible and...
