Its pages speak for themselves. The book is a defense of a most ancient method of teaching - so old that we cannot recall the time when men who thought and taught at all did not employ it. We find it in Eden, when God gave man his first command; at Sinai, when Moses taught God s chosen people both law and gospel by complicated and impressive symbols; in Israel, by the Hiddekel, and in Babylon, when holy prophets gave forth burning words from the invisible God; in Galilee and in Judea, when He who spake as never man spake taught the thronging multitudes the love and power and sweetness that were to be found in his own divine Gospel.
