

Eden's Sin (Paperback)

By Jennifer Jakes

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A man with a bitter past. After the Civil War, Major Sinclair Bradford fled West to escape the pain of battle and the shame of a failed marriage. Haunted by betrayal and lies, he trusts no one-especially women. The last thing he needs is the lure of a dark haired brothel madam. Not only is she beautiful enough to tempt the devil, she's deceitful enough to shred what's left of Sinclair's heart. But when she asks for his help to investigate the attack of a young girl, he can't say no to her-nor the aching desire she stirs in him. A woman with no future. Eden Gabrielli lives by three rules: Never trust the wealthy, do whatever it takes to survive, and never again believe a decent man could love a whore. After being stabbed and left for dead, she must lie to keep her secrets and protect her sister from a life of prostitution-even if that means deceiving the handsome and determined Major Bradford, the one man who tempts her to break her rules. She might need his...
