Excerpt from Union Theological Seminary Bulletin, Vol. 1: Three Addresses in Commemoration of the Four Hundredth Anniversary of the Reformation Four hundred years ago today Martin Luther began public agitation for the reform Of the Latin Church. On the eve of All Saints Day, 1517, he tacked up on a church door in Witten berg a long set Of propositions on which he challenged all comers to debate. N 0 one took up the challenge, so the debate never cam. It might have remained one of those fizzles of which academic history is full, had not pirating publishers seized On Luther s utterances and scattered them broadcast in different parts of Germany to the dismay Of the prudent. They provoked a tich attracted great attention. Men usually like to watch a fight and many Of Luther s fellow countrymen were particularly pleased to see the thick-set little professor of Witten berg start single-handed to attack the Italian exploiters of the German Church; for most Germans, and particularly the leading merchants and bankers, had beheld with disapproval many a mule team heavily laden with...
