Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Commission to Investigate the Educational System and Conditions of Vermont, 1914 To His Excellency, Allen M. Fletcher, Governor of the State of Vermont: On the eighth day of November, 1912, by communications to the Senate and House of Representatives, Your Excellency submitted to their consideration certain suggestions regarding public education and recommended the creation of an Educational Commission charged with the duty of making inquiry thereinto for the purpose of securing legislation for such reorganization of the elementary and secondary public schools of the state, in adjustment to the entire educational system of the state, as would promote the ends of economy, harmony and unit. In view of the constant requests of our institutions of higher learning for increasing state appropriations for their support and maintenance and the importance that the status of these institutions in their relations to the state should be clearly and speedily established, it was your further recommendation that such Educational Commission be required to report on the several necessities of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College, Middlebury College and Norwich...
