RUNNING TO SAVE AMERICA

Don Flanders. Paperback. Condition: New. 308 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.7in. Dan Fleming, white and Ben West, black were born in 1943. Ben's mother, Rebecca, was Nanny to Dan while Dan's mother worked as a welder in the shipyards of Savannah, Georgia during World War II. Rebecca brought Ben with her each day, crossing busy Bay street which separated the two government housing projects in segregated Savannah. Dan and Ben became best friends as young children, realizing that they had one thing in common which separated them from the other children. . . . God-given foot speed. As each family left the housing projects to live in segregated communities, Dan and Ben were separated at nine years of age, sadly thinking that they would never see each other again. After eight years apart, however, it was their gift of foot speed that brought them together again as high school athletes. Both young men were superior athletes hoping for professional careers. Each suffered serious injuries which ended those hopes at an early age. They would remain best friends for life as their chosen business careers came together for mutual success in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Ben and Dan were brought up in homes of discipline. . . where education was valued, hard work was naturally expected and love for each other was practiced. The parents of each had a trusting faith that God has a plan for each of us. . . a plan much greater than one we could envision for ourselves. It is a plan that God will work out in His own time as we live out our lives in His will. Ben earned an MBA from Vanderbilt University while coaching football in Nashville. He began selling cars for a new car dealership in Nashville with dreams of one...
