Excerpt from Corporate Social Responsibility and the Investor In virtually every case the proposal has been contested by the company with the Securities and Exchange Commission as not appropriate for stockholder vote. However, the sec has approved enough of them for stockholder voting, some in modified form, that many of the issues have been voted upon at the annual meeting. Because proportionately few stockholders attend annual meetings, the votes have largely been by proxy a signed delegation of the right to vote the shares either in a particular manner, or as the delegate chooses).
