ANDORRA REVEALED

WoollyAllWood. Paperback. Condition: New. 286 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.7in. Andorra Revealed: Entertaining stories and essays about one of the worlds more enigmatic countries. Come with us and we will take you on a journey, through fact and fiction, memoire and imagination, behind the scenes and into the heart of this unique, pocket-sized country. This is not a guide book as such you can find information about the countrys 625 restaurants and 330 hotels with a couple of clicks on the Internet. No, this is both an entertaining companion for would-be visitors and a practical guide for those considering Andorra as a place to live. The book is crammed with facts about the country, past and present, interwoven with bedtime stories that reveal even more of this rare Co-Princedom: tales of smugglers and pigs, murder and even witches on broomsticks, punctuated here and there by elegant haikus and cheeky limericks. This is a travel book like no other, eccentric and eclectic, sharing with you the allure that has brought foreigners from all over the world to make this country their home. None more so than the authors themselves: Clare Allcard arrived by sailboat - and finally car - from Singapore, Judith Wood, born in Bombay, was drawn from London, Iain Woolward from Silicon Valley, Alexandra Grebennikova from Russia, Valerie Rymarenko from Spain while Ursula Ure Simpson was born in Shanghai, brought up in Cairo and arrived in Andorra by camper van from London. Between them they have lived in Andorra a total of 133 years. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
