Many rules given may seem so simple as not to need stating. The author's experience in conducting classes of College and Law Students, Chautauquas, Men's and Women's Clubs, etc., has taught him that nothing hinders progress more than misunderstanding the simple things at the beginning, and that nothing is more common. The Syllabus is written especially for that large and growing class of Clubs, Literary Societies, etc., which so deeply feel the need of a better acquaintance with Parliamentary forms and usages, as well as the difficulties in the way of gaining such practical knowledge through mere individual study, that they are turning resolutely to Club Practice as the true and only solution of this problem. It is hoped that in such Club Practice - practice with study - these lessons will be found helpful and not...
