

Small Change: How Fifty Dollars Can Change the World (Paperback)

By Jurriaan Kamp

Cosimo, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Help people help themselves: That s the idea behind microcredit. Small loans-sometimes no more than $50-can radically improve the life of a poor family. Where development aid and billion-dollar loans fail, microcredit is emerging as the success story in the battle against world poverty. And it turns out they nearly always repay their loans on time. In many countries, professional organizations have become active in the field of microfinancing. Their stories make it clear that microcredit is a tremendous stimulus for economic and social development and, in particular, for people s self-awareness. Co-founder and editor-in-chief of Ode magazine, Jurriaan Kamp has published two previous books, Because People Matter: Building an Economy That Works for Everyone (2000) and It Is Possible (1998). Praise for Jurriaan Kamp s Because People Matter: A wonderful and concise handbook...
