Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Written for young children, probably the only Biblical account of creation on the face of the earth delicately amplified to clearly present to a child's understanding God's purpose in creation for marriage, family, and gender. In particular, it brings to life before their eyes God's principle of seed, principle of gender, and the defining characteristic of gender. The book is comprised of 42 beautiful high quality color photographs, each one portraying the majesty and glory of God's breathtaking creation handiwork. The story unfolds with the text inscribed on photo after photo in an interesting child-friendly story format they can easily understand, each thought taken sequentially from Genesis Chapter One. Our church's Children's Ministry distributed these books to each of our families because of the sound Biblical truth presented in such a clear manner. While reading it with my own children, I observed how attentively they listened to the text and were captivated by the beautiful photographs. It provoked them to ask questions about Creation and the uniqueness of gender. I enthusiastically recommend this book to all parents!--Jeremy, Family Pastor My little grandson was greatly blessed by the story of creation presented in your Children's Creation! It addressed all of his questions and feelings concerning who he is as a boy, and at the same time clearly showed him God's purposes in creation. He was super-excited going through it page by page with me! ---Michael John Finally.a children's story of creation with absolutely beautiful nature photographs rather than just the usual drawings, sketches, and illustrations so typical of children's books! I am especially grateful for how simply and truthfully you provided an answer to...
