Superintendent Frank Leavitt, of Pittsburgh, is to give a course in vocational guidance and placement nt the summer session of the Buffalo Normal School. Mrs. Anna Y. Keed, of the Employment Service, is to spend a week at the Cleveland School of Education. The Junior Division of the Employment Service receives many calls for cooperation from cities preparing to introduce continuation schools. Superintendent Leavitt represented the national office at the meeting of the Michigan superintendents at the N. E. A. in Cleveland, where plans for the introduction of continuation schools in September, 1920, were discussed. In September, the national. ofli-e announced that it anticipated the preparation of a manual for the use of teachers and Junior Employment Service counselors on the subject of Vocational Guidance and Placement. It was hoped that Mr. E. W. Weaver would prepare this manual. Since that date, Mr. Weaver has become...
