

Diary of Two Mad Black Mormons: Finding the Lords Lessons in Everyday Life

By Tamu Smith

Shadow Mountain. Hardcover. Condition: New. 240 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.6in. x 0.8in. You have read the title, and now you're scratching your head, wondering if this book is for real, right? It is. Yes, the authors are bona fide Mormons. And hilarious, too! They call themselves Sistas in Zion. Did we mention they have got enough faith to move mountains? Well, they have not moved any mountains just yet, but that is not stopping them from keeping right on praying and believing and knowing that the gospel of Jesus Christ is worth it. Their unique perspective on their own diary entries will have you laughing one minute and exclaiming Amen! the next. They talk about personal experiences and lessons they have learned about relationships, sisterhood, standing up for what you believe, embracing diversity, and dealing with adversity what being a Christian is all about. The Sistas humorous and poignant outlook on life will strengthen your faith and remind you of the joy to be found in living a Christ-centered life. You will soon realize that the authors are not mad-mad they are crazy-mad, funny, and inspiring! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La...
