The minimalistic outlook extends not just to your surroundings and things you own, but it also is how you can come to view your relationships, spirituality and approach to total wellness. The minimalist life style isn t about not valuing things, it s about making sure that everything in your life has meaning, purpose and value. This drive for meaning and purpose isn t just limited to what you own, it is also about you and your relationships. The modern minimalist is someone who lives well, loves well and is present in every aspect of their lives. This book is dedicated to the art of minimalism, and the modern minimalist. Here is just a sampling of what you will discover inside: - Learn why being a...
