I commend these essays highly-- William Johnsson, Loma Linda University . the papers presented at the Unity Conference in London . address an issue of urgent importance in the church, and they do so from various perspectives-biblical, historical, and theological. They are uniformly thoughtful and informed. And most important, they reflect throughout the authors profound commitment to the Adventist community--to finding, affirming, and strengthening the factors that have kept us together throughout our history. I hope they receive careful and widespread...
