ELEMENTS OF ECONOMICS

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | A clear insight | Economics is the science of the optimal allocation of scarce resources to potentially infinite needs. The economy is fixed as an objective to say how can, with limited means, get the maximum (this is what means optimal allocation) of satisfaction of needs. Microeconomics is the study of individual behavior, in particular those of consumers, producers or holders of resources, and the analysis of their interaction. Macroeconomics examines, meanwhile,...
