Oh, what love that is uncommonly tasteful to the soul, Perpetual peace so glorious, so wonderful as an everlasting sanctuary, That peace which becomes our resting place as we reside in Your presence. Each of these insightful poems by Sylvia Thornton was inspired by the Spirit and Word of God. Many of these prophetic selections are beautiful letters from our loving Father God to His precious children, while others reflect heartfelt expressions of praise, love and adoration from a child of God to her heavenly Father. The captivating prose will both encourage and enlighten you about a variety of topics, from exploring the love and peace of God to passionately seeking Him and defeating the enemy. Take a moment to bask in the radiance of the Father's unending love, and allow the Lord to refresh and encourage your spirit as you read and reflect upon Poetry from the Mountaintop.
