

A Personal Guide for Cabin and Cockpit Self Defense (Paperback)

By Sergeant David D. Cortez

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book outlines a variety of self defense related issues. First it recognizes terrorism profound impact on the flight industry and the American way of life. Secondly, it draws informal parallels between the current flight industry and our system of policing while defining some terrorist methods of operations. Moreover, the book addresses a need for a change in attitude and purpose as it relates to flight personnel. Varied issues involving fear, emotional control, legality, personal attitudes, edged weapons defenses, and personal weapons, are delineated in this book. What's more, realistic self-defense measures are clarified for Cabin and Cockpit Defense. This book is a classic HOW TO on Self-Defense and a must read for airline personnel, police and the military.
