

Jamal's Busy Day (Paperback)

By Wade Hudson, George Ford

Just Us Books, US, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. George Ford (illustrator). New edition. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From Publishers Weekly The charm of this unassuming, engaging picture book rests in the tongue-in-cheek parallels between the daily labors of parents and offspring. The youngster here is an African American only child; the adults are active, serious professionals--father is an architect, mother an accountant. In its own way, Jamal's day is as demanding as theirs: he works with numbers in math class, does research in the library, has meetings to attend in the school auditorium and occasionally settles schoolyard disagreements between my co-workers. The upbeat message is that both parents and children can work hard and accomplish much in their respective arenas: all have something to contribute and all work has value. Illustrating this sweetly didactic story are Ford's (Bright Eyes, Brown Skin) realistic watercolors, which present a boy full of energy and excited by his truly busy day. Ages 3-7. From School Library Journal PreSchool-Grade 1-- Jamal, a handsome, energetic African-American boy, is shown making all the necessary preparations for school that his parents make to begin their day. After...
