joe muldrow. Paperback. Condition: New. 613 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.4in. It is always exceptionally sad when young children die; but if a parent has to bury a child amidst a city-wide coverup and scandalous efforts by the legal system to sweep that death aside, its one hundred times more devastating. This book was written in fond memory of my beloved first son, William. He was tragically killed in a senseless hit-and-run accident by a childhood friend, one block away from their homes. This fortuity occurred one week prior to the start of Williams career in the U. S. Marines. Eyewitnesses stated that in the darkness of the night, William haphazardly placed himself on the trunk of an identified drivers car. This was an incautious effort to persuade his friends (who had flagged down a ride prior to his arrival) not to leave the area. While requesting to know the identity of the non-visible passengers, the driver became agitated with this unauthorized placement and alerted the other teens to brace themselves as he sped off. As William clung to the trunk yelling for the driver (who was still unknown to him) to stop so that he could walk; the driver began swerving in a manner that catapulted William onto the street. When passengers alerted the assailant of the mishap, he responded with derogatory profanity, a strong racist epithet and intent to teach William a lesson. Once this culprit viewed Williams serious injuries, he attempted to stop eye-witnesses and neighbors from calling for ambulatory assistance. He then tried to persuade those witnesses to leave the scene of the crime with him before the police arrived. After fleeing to his home, he took a shower and went to bed; failing to alert his family of the inhumane crimes and Williams life...
