Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Nature Songs In putting forth a fifth book of verse that cannot find a publisher, reader or a friend, perhaps the plain, blunt truth again is best. All the votes that really count are adverse. It can t get across. Perhaps it is not worth it. Perhaps it has performed its highest service in giving the author mental occupation at a time when most needed, but in a country and nation that has none of the first class and very little of second class poetry, it ought not to be so hard to find a publisher and more important, a person capable of judging who will even read. This is the first classified collection of my songs. They are a lyrical contribution to a subject that ought to have a large and inspiring volume. It is surprising that we have no great book of such a character. Why has no genius been born and consecrated to this subject! The scattered fragments in the singers are merely incidents and illustrations. Byron, Wordsworth and Shelley may give...
