LAND GRABBING IN TOURISM

AV Akademikerverlag Jun 2017, 2017. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - Across the developing world, land grabbing is an emerging process of deep importance as it causes radical changes in the use and ownership of land. It involves either the extensive alienation of land and water resources, or the restructuring of rules and authority in the access, use and management of resources that may as well have alienating effects. The production and export of farmland crops for food and energy security...
