Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Poetical Works of William Cowper: With Memoir and Notes Newton treated his unhappy guest with great affection, and hailed with delight the first smile of the melancholy man. Then he proposed that Cowper should return to his own home, and the patient eagerly consented. During the whole period of his derangement Mrs. Unwin had manifested the most affectionate devotion to him. Her watchful care had preserved him from self-destruction, and day and night she had watched over him till he went to Newton s. Even then her tender care was continued for him, and on his return to her house she shared her small income with him, and did all that was possible to cheer and sustain him. Gradually he grew better; occupied himself with gardening and carpentering, and amused himself with petting animals. He had, besides his three famous hares, five rabbits, two guinea-pigs, two dogs, a magpie, a jay, and other birds.
