Business magnate William Stonewell has everything a man could want: a thriving business, loads of money, and cars that are the envy of his friends. The only thing that's missing is a woman to share his life with. Someone he can love. The only problem is that he's just not very good at approaching women. Alexandra Tyler is a bit of a free spirit. She loves her life and lives every day to the fullest; however, she finds herself longing to be loved and to love someone in return. Her co-workers laugh at the fact that she is still a virgin, but she doesn't care. She knows that she will only give it up to the man she will marry someday, and not before. One night out on the town changes the course of their lives. William never imagined that meeting someone in a bar could result in such temptation, but there is just something about Alexandra that gets to him. With sparks flying all around them, William is intrigued to see where this could go. Stepping out of his...

Reviews

The ebook is easy to go through easier to recognize. We have studied and I am certain that I will plan to read through once again in the future. I am quickly getting a pleasure of studying a composed publication.

Undoubtedly, this is the best function by any writer. This really is for those who state there was not a really worth reading. It's been written in an exceptionally basic way which is merely right after I finished reading through this book by which really transformed me, change the way I really believe.
