Life in the Boreal Forest

By Guiberson, Brenda Z.

Henry Holt and Co. (BYR), 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "This non-fiction book shows why the boreal forest, home to a unique ecosystem of plants and animals, is as big and important as tropical rain forests." USA Today "Gorgeously intricate illustrations perfectly complement equally evocative text in this introduction to the great northern, or boreal, forest, which sprawls across the entire northern hemisphere. Guiberson and Spirin manage to successfully convey the beauty and majesty of this forest and its denizens in two dimensions, and a list of organizations devoted to preserving the forest provides further information. An author's note adds urgency to the message about the importance of preservation." Booklist, Starred Review "Taking readers through the seasons, Guiberson and Spirin present a verbal and pictorial treasury for nature lovers and young researchers alike." School Library Journal "Beautiful and useful." Kirkus Reviews "Each of the stunning paintings in this catalog of the Boreal Forest, the great northern forest, is breathtakingly beautiful. They are in the style of Audubon and other great naturalist painters. They breathe life into the creatures, give texture to their fur and feathers and capture a sense of place."...

Reviews

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better than never, though I am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
