The grand-marshal on the occasion, James N Lewis, Esq., called the meeting to order; and after quiet had been restored, Marcellus Clark, Esq., our highly-esteemed postmaster, stated, in a brief and pertinent address, the object of the meeting, which in substance was as follows: -- Will the audience give their attention 1 Ladies and gentlemen, fellow-citizens, and you who have favoured us with your attendance from abroad. You all probably well know the object of this assemblage: it is to greet with social and festive welcome our distinguished fellow-citizen, Elihu Burritt, Esq., who is of us, has long been from us, and, I rejoice to say, is now, in person, with us. Order is heaven's first law; and to the end that such system and regularity shall be observed on this occasion as shall prevent confusion and enhance the enjoyment of the same,...
