Somewhere, mostly in the imagination, there is a world made up of nations whose populations are, respectively, cats, rats, dogs, and other little creatures. Now imagine that these nations possess guns, bombers, radios, espionage agencies, and other delightful military and espionage equipment and institutions. A little gray cat named Puss--and his cat-girl-friend--get caught up in such a world. Puss wears combat boots because he s in the Cat Army; yet he is a most unwarlike animal. Can he find the courage to deal with his nation s worst enemy--Dirty Rat, the Dictator of Rodentia? Can he and his companions meet the challenge? Find out in this novella, a spoof of spy stories, anti-hero stories, and anything else that can be spoofed. Author Karl G. Larew is a retired history professor and erstwhile intelligence officer with a life-long love of military history--and cats.
