Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Church After the War It was that distinguished Englishman Lord Brougham who said, A great mind on a great occasion engaged in the discussion of a great theme is the most impressive and majestic spectacle in human life. Those who were fortunate to be present at the opening session of the Ohio Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Wednesday morning, September 26, 1917, felt the force of this statement. All these three conditions met in a remarkable degree. It was a great occasion. The old Ohio is the oldest of the Annual Conferences in the State, this being the 106th session. The announcement of the program attracted many people, so that the audience was quite representative of the leading men of Ohio s capital city. It was such an audience as would be a challenge to any public speaker. The subject which had been chosen was one of vital interest - The Church After the War.
