

Torrie and the Dragonslayers

By K. V. Johansen

Sybertooth INC. Paperback. Condition: New. 162 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. Once there was a prince who set off on a quest for a magic sword. He ran into a bit of trouble with a sorcerer -- who didnt like trespassers -- and the sorcerers wolf-headed guards. . . . Once there was a young woman who decided to run away from home. . . . Luckily for the prince, who was in her fathers dungeon by then, she decided to rescue him first. Luckily for both of them, Torrie came along as well. Cossyphas father, a reclusive sorcerer, seems to have gone mad. Hes done something truly horrible to the servants and, since becoming obsessed with a mysterious Great Spell, hardly even notices Cossys existence. Shes had enough of being treated like a child and forbidden to study sorcery, so when she discovers Prince Rufik in the dungeon, she decides to steal him. Rufik, though he doesnt like being forced to believe in magic, is on a quest for a legendary, dragon-slaying sword. His fathers kingdom is being laid waste by a dragon and the Sword Wormbane may be their last hope. Among some of the creatures in...
