The Vendee Globe is even a greater challenge than climbing Mt. Everest. .Sen. John Kerry, in U.S. Senate Tribute to Rich Wilson The Vendee Globe is a race that is almost beyond belief. .Gary Jobson, ESPN Commentator In 2008-9, Rich Wilson became only the second American to finish the Vendee Globe, deemed the most grueling and dangerous prolonged competition on the planet. (Garry Emmons, HBS Bulletin, 2009) The senior skipper at age 58, and a severe asthmatic, Wilson finished 9th of 11 finishers of 30 starters, racing 29,000 miles over 121 days in his 60 boat Great American III. He endured broken ribs, a bloody facial gash, a climb up the mast on his run to Cape Horn, sleep deprivation, exhaustion and fear, while ten gales battered his trusty GA3 on her 4th race around the world. Wilson s tenacity, perseverance, determination and skill inspire and motivate: that we can all do more than we think. Written intensely, engagingly, and humbly, Wilson s book brings you onto his boat in the heat and doldrums of the tropics,...
