To be successful at the next Presidential election, it seems to be conceded by all, the electoral vote of this State must be secured; and it, we are persuaded, can only be secured by maintaining the integrity of the People s Party. We hold, therefore, that but one candidate for the Presidency should be in the field against the Democratic nominee, and that he should be the nominee of no distinctive organization, but of the united action of all branches of the opposition to the Democratic Party of the country. Such action, we know full well, can only be obtained by a spirit of conciliation and forbearance....
