Living with Shadows: Making the Pieces Fit (Paperback)

By Joan Rowe

Troubador Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A powerful World War 1 drama based in part on a true diary from the time. A story of healing and redemption within the constant danger from war. In the chaotic and bloody aftermath of the failed Gallipoli campaign the physical and emotional suffering of those who had fought there was only just beginning. Young Chaplain Crispin Honeybourn watched in terror the men being hauled from the sea and the burning wreckage of their ship. He knew he would be performing many sea burials in the days ahead. He would comfort many more, not just the wounded but also the frightened young nurses helping them. The perilous journey to Malta, and then onwards back to Britain and home, would be fraught with danger, many crises and emotional trauma. It would also be a time of developing friendship between Crispin, the patients and the nurses who looked after them. Patient 355, who had no uniform or identity papers, was badly injured and suffering from both amnesia and terrible flashbacks. He became the Chaplain's special concern. The hospital in Malta provided a brief period of respite, but...
