NIGHTCOMERS (PAPERBACK)

Priceclan, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Praise for Nightcomers from Philip Pullman. Every tale shows the quality of the imagination, and the accuracy of the telling. What most impresses is the authority of Susan Price's voice: exact, rich or spare when necessary, able to evoke the Past without falsity, and the present without effort. (The Guardian.) Nightcomers. The beautiful and the uncanny. A beautiful Englishman drives his Italian mistress to suicide - but she pursues him even after death. A young blacksmith spends Midsummer's Night near an ancient mound, to shoe with silver the horses of those who come by. In an echoing, eerie, out-of-hours mall, a lonely cleaner falls in love with a beautiful, hungry stranger. A family gather at a dying girl's bedside and, out of the night, something comes knocking at the window. A man walks home, on a freezing night, along lanes haunted by the Death-Dog. A young actor is offered a lift in a car silver sports car with the number, 130. A holiday cottage holds memories of despair. And a ghost features in a gentle Christmas story. Eight eerie, haunting stories of the supernatural from an expert story-teller and award-winning writer.
