

From a Servants Heart (Paperback)

By Linda G Burbank

Xulon Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a collection of poetry that comes from the Holy Spirit through me. The vast majority of them were written as I sat in church listening to my Pastor speak the word into our hearts. Others came from visiting pastors and some from my own heart as the Lord laid things there that he wanted me to say. As the first poem in the book says I consider this a gift that the Lord has given me to help others to come to Him or to guide them on their path. My prayer is that what you see here gives you what you need to become complete in Him. Linda Burbank was born and raised in the area of Detroit, Michigan. She grew up involved in theatre and dance and has been writing poetry since she was a child. She has also written and published a short story and a children s book. She graduated from two courses in writing children s literature and also graduated from The Institute of Theology by Extension, or INSTE as it is known. She loves...
