I have given you every seed-bearing herb and every fruit-bearing tree, which is upon the surface of the earth for food; and to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to every moving and animated thing upon the earth I have given every green herb for food. And as God said, it was, and is. And yet God has made the material bodies of this army of living creatures furnished to the waters, the air, and the surface of the earth, as He has made the material body of man, out of the dust of the ground. The Raw Material of living creation is drawn from the fixed stores preserved in the rocky foundations of the globe, in the vapours of the air, and in the waters of the sea. But that Raw Material is moulded and tempered by an intermediate artificer before it is finally built into living and moving form. That artificer is the tender plant, the herb bearing seed, and the tree yielding fruit. This is how the first command of the Great Omniscient has been obeyed by His creation;--the green herb and tender plant are the food of all..
