AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This story begins in a small town south of San Francisco, California. Colma, California is a cemetery town, not many things happen there! It is about a Rookie Police Officer just out of the academy trying to satisfy his father s wishes. The rookie cops name is Ray Ottoboni, a spoiled rich kid who never wanted to be a cop! A religious kid that couldn t harm anyone. Ray was inexperienced in police work and had no one to advise him what to do! The Chief of police Dino had no training in police work and has never been to a Police Academy! As the story moves on Ray calls for an ambulance on a traffic accident. Mercy Ambulance responded to the scene and in those days the ambulance Company had one paramedic and a driver. After the injured person was treated, Wayne, who was the driver, started a conversation with Ray. That conversation started a chain of events that would change Ray s life forever. One thing leads to another and both parties end up in Lake Tahoe, Nevada. Ray didn t know he was being setup in a murder. There is no way the rookie cop was supposed to know the ambulance driver was a killer! The decision that was made to bury the woman was wrong but the rookie cop was scared and totally in shock. Nobody knows what they would do if placed in that position. No matter ifhe is a police officer or a private citizen! After Lake Tahoe, the most bewildering true crime investigations take place. The story changes and the killer becomes a serial killer! The rookie cop, all alone and...
