Excerpt from A Sermon, Delivered Dec; 30, 1834, at the Funeral of the Rev. Samuel Stearns, A. M: Pastor of the Trinitarian Congregational Church and Society, in Bedford, Mass;, Who Departed This Life, December 26, 1834 in the 65th Year of His Age, and 39th of His Ministry These words are from the well known discourse of Jesus with Martha, mourning for the death of her brother Lazarus. This Lazarus had been a friend of Jesus, loving him, and beloved by him. But the love which the Savior had for him, did not exempt him from death. This friend of Christ died, Christ himself declining to interpose his power to prevent it, when he might And Christ still suffers his friends to die he still permits the King of terrors for the present to triumph over them. But at the same time, he has provided in his Gospel abundance of consolation for surviving friends. He spake the words just read to you, for the comfort of Martha on the occasion referred to. And when at the present day those...
