Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . January 2, 2009, at just 44 years of age, Laura Jackson was diagnosed with stage 3 adenocarcinoma breast cancer and traveled to a German Clinic outside of Frankfurt for treatment. May 22, 2009 Laura was diagnosed as Cancer Free. Now, more than five years later, she has remained Cancer Free and in great health! Being an RN educator for years, Laura decided to journal all her experiences receiving treatment in a foreign country, in order to help any who may be interested in stepping outside the traditional therapy box, and pursue a healthier approach. This is Laura s story, now available in a fun, easy to read format, which also explains each treatment she received and why she was receiving it. It s written from a patient s viewpoint so that anyone can understand the information, as well as appreciate the journey. If you ever though about getting medical treatments overseas, this is a must read. You ll discover the ins and outs, first hand, of what it s like staying in a clinic, in a foreign country, battling a very scary disease.
