Some have inferred from reading that letter, that Mr. Bommer has never been the proprietor of the Patent pertaining to his Method, while others who have read it with more attention, have inferred that he has been merely the proprietor of the Patent for a part of the States by assignment, and furthermore, that the improvements on which the American Patent is predicated, are of trifling importance, and that Bommer s Method contains no essential advantages over Jauffret s. I design to show that all these various opinions are erroneous. It is not disputed but what the American Patent was first secured by Baer and Gouliart, and that only a part of the States were immediately transferred to Mr. Bommer by assignment, in anticipation of the Patent before it was executed, yet subsequently all the remaining States and Territories were also assigned to him and duly recorded at the Patent Office. The book which is commonly termed Bommer s Method, which contains a full...
