

The Gifts of Autism and Alzheimers

By Ken Routson

Tulip Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 170 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. This book is a spectacular marriage of psychology and physiology - attitude emotion and biology. You won't view fear or sadness as the only human responses to having a loved one diagnosed with autism or Alzheimers and it will no longer be possible for you to be able to look at someone you care about with neurological challenged and simultaneously think to yourself, there's nothing I can do to meaningfully impact my loved one's condition. The authors combined their professional experiences with Autism with their personal experiences in caring with a parent with Alzheimers. They noted the similarities between the two disabling conditions. Book also includes contributed stories from people with Autism and Alzheimers along with their families stories. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
