TEACHER CREATED MATERIALS, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 221 x 173 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. You eat food every day. In fact, every living organism cant live without it. Digestion is a complex, sometimes gross, process by which our bodies turn a meal into energy. From humans to birds and herbivores to decomposers, find out what happens after food enters the body in this dynamic science book. Youll be amazed to learn that you really are what you eat. Fifth-grade readers will learn about the digestive systems of humans and animals, photosynthesis, organ structure and function, and more through this high-interest informational text filled with vibrant photographs. Aligned to the Next Generation Science Standards, a hands-on "Think Like a Scientist" lab activity and a "Your Tum" page at the end of the book support STEM Education and provide young scientists with an opportunity to apply what theyve learned in the text. Helpful diagrams and text features, such as a glossary and index, are also included to reinforce content-area literacy and improve close reading.
