Everything is perfect for Megs Fifth Birthday Party. Her favourite clown is performing; her pretty pink cake has five candles on it, and all her friends have arrived with presents, ready to enjoy the celebrations. When things go wrong, what will Meg choose to do This story centres on Megs birthday and the fun and adventure that ensues. The story is completely done in rhyme. I am a fan of rhyming as I think it helps (children with) learning and recalling information. Unfortunately her pet dog Milo jumps on the cake and things start going awry for Meg. But she learns that it is more fun to share with her friends rather than think only of herself A sweet little story that kids will warm too. Definitely recommended. allrandom32 The Little Mates Childrens Book Series is about four children who live in Australia and are aged between 5 and 10 years. Matt and Meg are brother and sister. They are neighbours to Max and Maddi who live with their clever dog Milo. Each story is written in rhyme and features the adventures of the Little Mates as they experience life challenges and issues such as peer pressure, self-esteem, obeying rules, being brave, coping with new situations, and always looking for solutions. The overriding concept is that every action has a consequence, whether good or bad. The stories are written so that readers can identify with similar situations in their own lives, learning from the choices the Little Mates make and gaining understanding from the way they handle difficulties. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
