Dorrance Publishing Co. Paperback. Condition: New. 328 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.7in. x 0.8in. Voice from the Mangrove Swamps shares the remarkable life story of Bassey E. Essien, Ed. D. , from his dangerous job fishing as a young child in West Africa to his settlement and accomplishments in the United States. Essien was born in a small village in Nigeria. C. , where he struggled to make ends meet as he put himself through school. Despite the hardships, he was convinced that education was the key to success. Starting with his G. E. D. , he eventually earned a bachelors degree, masters degree, and even a doctor of education (Ed. D.) degree. Aside from his educational endeavors, this narrative also describes his family life. He moved to Albany, New York, after marrying his wife, Elizabeth, and there they raised four daughters. He emphasized the importance of education, as exemplified in his daughters achievements. Essien hopes his book will serve to enlighten people about the struggles...
