Excerpt from The Mistress of Brae Farm: A Novel The young mistress of Brae Farm was looking over the little green gate that divided the garden from the big farmyard. It was still early in the afternoon, and there was a hush and stillness over the whole place as though a universal siesta prevailed. Presently from the long green meadow the cows would come slowly in Single file to the milking-shed, and later on the cart-horses clattering heavily down the lane on their way to the pond.
