Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The international film industry is a cutthroat business, but Adriana Zennelli will go up against a killer who takes that expression very literally. Adriana has a thriving law practice in Laguna Beach, California. When influential businesswoman Sophie Chen calls her to a meeting halfway around the world in Strasbourg, France, she can hardly say no. Adriana is tasked with settling a dispute between Sophie and Adriana's father, influential film producer Romano Zennelli. The origin of their conflict is a new property, The Heat of the Desert Wind. The French film, titled The Heat of the Desert Wind, is a lifeless, lengthy saga directed by a self-aggrandizing egomaniac. Romano refuses to distribute it in the United States without extensive editing. The director, Godeau, claims Romano is trying to kill his vision. Threats to her father's professional career aren't what have Adriana so on edge though. Several of the film's investors have died under mysterious circumstances. When another body turns up at the famous Cannes Film Festival, Adriana knows that she's on the trail of a cold-blooded killer. Her inquiries will take her all across France and unearth a tangled web of lies, greed, and betrayal.
