Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from River, Sand, and Sun: Being Sketches of the C. M.S. Egypt Mission The following chapters are an imperfect and informal record of the work of the Church Missionary Society in Egypt as seen during winter visits made on three different occasions, covering in all a period of eleven months. No one is better aware than the writer how inadequately they represent the spiritual conditions and spiritual needs of that country of surpassing interest. No attempt has been made to portray the work of other missionary agencies, but perhaps it is not too much to hope that through reading these simple pages missionary sympathy may be called out for all those who are spreading the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in a land where once it reigned supreme. If one Society should be named more than another it is the American Presbyterian Mission, which has worked on a larger scale than any other in Egypt for fifty years. Sincere thanks are due to those friends who have generously contributed the illustrations. Amongst them are: Mrs. Edwards, Miss Bywater, Miss Warburton, Miss G.A. Western, Hugh Taylor Brown, Esq., Sydney Hallifax, Esq., and the Rev. Rennie MacInnes. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
